

Posting

The Church of the Holy Nativity seeks a vibrant part-time youth minister to support the faith journeys of the parish's youth. We seek a youth minister who can grow a ministry in which youth can relate to one another authentically in a Christian environment with a modern Christian worldview of inclusivity and service. To be successful in this position, the candidate must have a heart for youth of all ages; be skilled at building relationships with teens and their parents; be organized and able to plan programs.

Church of the Holy Nativity in Clarendon Hills, IL, is a progressive congregation in the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago. We are committed to diversity and radical hospitality and aim to make our church a place of welcome and spiritual nurture for all people. Holy Nativity has a heart for outreach and enjoys a broad spectrum of liturgical expression. We believe in having fun together as we seek and serve Christ in one another and in the world. We are what the Diocese of Chicago calls a "Mustard Seed Congregation," positioned for growth and committed to growing the Body of Christ. We are looking for a youth minister who shares such values who can minister among our youth. For more information about Holy Nativity, explore our website:

www.holynativity-church.org.

Additional Information:

- Church of the Holy Nativity is a parish of the Episcopal Church; however, candidates from all churches will be considered.
- Church of the Holy Nativity is committed to being an inclusive community and does not discriminate on the basis of racial, ethnic, gender, or sexual orientation.

How to apply:

Send cover letter and resume to:

The Rev. Aimée Delevett
The Church of the Holy Nativity
275 South Richmond Ave.
Clarendon Hills, IL 60514

E-mail cover letter and resume to The Rev. Aimée Delevett at bjbuday@sbcglobal.net